

Edward Antony Oram

20th May 1937 – 5th September 2009

Dignity can't be measured, it just is.

Tony, as he was known to all, cancer in August 2008. After misdiagnosis, being given 3 an amazing specialist by the husband, father and those last months in agony. and patient came through a attempt to buy time and pain free as possible. This his beloved wife Collette.

The family he left behind Never far from our thoughts, constantly, we remember the made you unique.

Thankyou for being the most father to your three Susan. Together with the you instilled in us, we will dearest to you and still is to was diagnosed with pancreatic enduring months of pain and months was devastating. If not for name of Jas Samra, this cherished grandfather would have spent Rare men indeed, both surgeon gruelling 11 hour operation in an whatever time we had, to be as photo was taken Xmas 2008 with mourn and miss him every day. you creep into our conversation silly things, the little things that wonderful husband to Collette and daughters, Philippa, Nicola and love, integrity, honesty and faith continue to hold on to what was us, our family.

We would like to thank all the medical staff at Royal North Shore Hospital, Gosford Private Hospital, Gosford Public Hospital and especially the Cancer care and Palliative Care staff. You are all angels in training and even though Tony got his wings sooner rather than later, you all helped him get them peacefully and in style.